

Title of Presentation:
NDMS Patient Movement Item Program

Name of Presenter:
Mr. Randy H. Gonsalves, RN, MA

Time Allocated for Presentation:
35 Minutes

Teaching Methods to be Used:
Lecture/ Discussion & Power Point Slides

Brief Narrative Description:
This lecture will provide an insight into the complexities of the Patient Movement Item program. I will present an overview of the PMI programs purpose, requirements, what is PMI, storage of assets, tracking and issues or concerns NDMS needs to consider.

Objectives:

1. Discuss the intricacies of the PMI program, relating to inventory management, tracking, asset recycling and equipment maintenance.
2. Describe the standardization process of the USAF medical equipment inventories.

Outline:

- I. Identify the PMI requirements
 - A. Based on Aeromedical Evacuation Capability
 - B. Inventory Recycle Time
 - C. Average Days of Highest Demand
 - D. Standardization of Essential Items
- II. Define the key operational requirements of the PMI Program.
 - A. Inventory
 - B. Tracking
 - C. Asset Recycling
 - D. Maintenance
- III. Discuss possible issues or concerns to establish a civil PMI Program
 - A. Homeland Defense Requirements
 - B. Storage and Access
 - C. Barcode Tracking Schema
 - D. Funding